I declare that:

1. The content of this portfolio (name, skills, education, projects and biography) is true and describes my own work and background.

2. I selected the app name, colours, content and projects myself, and I did not copy another student's submission.

3. I used AI assistance (Claude) to help generate source code and documents. This is disclosed in evidence/AI_USE.md. I reviewed, tested and understand the submitted work and can explain it.

4. Third-party libraries used (React Native, Expo, React Navigation, expo-image-picker, AsyncStorage) are acknowledged in the README.

5. The app stores only low-risk profile data on the phone and no passwords, tokens or sensitive records.

6. The submitted APK, repository and demonstration video are my own work and were tested by me.
